REPORT OF ANNUAL MEETING.

The tenth annual meeting of the Brooklyn Methodist Episcopal Church Home for the Aged and Infirm was held at "The Home," Tuesday evening, Jan. 16th, 1893.

It was the endeavor of the committee having in charge the arrangements for the evening, to impart to the meeting a more informal and social character than had belonged to similar gatherings in years past. The result was a happy blending of business and pleasure enjoyed by all.

The President of the Board of Managers of the Home, Mrs. M. M. Voorhies, occupied the chair and called upon the Rev. S. L. Beiler, D. D., to open the meeting with prayer.

The Treasurer, Mrs. A. P. Strout, being absent, her report was presented by Mrs. J. Y. Tuthill and accepted.

In accordance with a recommendation from the Board of Managers, the phrase "relatives who will provide for them" in Sec. 1st, Article III, of the Constitution was changed to "relatives to provide for them."

The Secretary's annual report was read by the corresponding secretary, Mrs. John H. Willson, and accepted.

Mrs. E. L. Pierson, chairman of the committee on nominations appointed by the Board of Managers, read the names of proposed managers for the coming year. On motion they were elected.

An able and impressive address was given by the Rev. J. W. Johnston, D. D.

Instrumental and vocal music succeeded by the following artists: Miss A. McMeekin, Miss A. Watson, Miss M. Melville, Prof. H. Edwards, Mr. G. Trimble and Master Cyrus Edwards.

Miss Edith M. Greene and Prof. P. S. M. Munroe gave recitations varied in their character.

An earnest and suggestive address was delivered by the Rev. C. S. Williams.

After more music and recitations, refreshments were served and a social hour enjoyed.

Respectfully submitted,

Mrs. H. C. M. INGRAHAM,

Secretary.

SECRETARY'S ANNUAL REPORT.

To the Board of Managers of the Brooklyn Methodist Episcopal Church Home for the Aged and Infirm:

So swiftly has the stream of time borne us along on its resistless tide, that it seems but yesterday when we listened to the tuneful bells, chiming the natal hour of the year, whose requiem has just been sung by December's wintry blasts, and whose going brings us again to the time of retrospect and reckoning. The past twelve months have not been free from anxiety to us, as a Board, for our financial condition has not been as flourishing as in former years, yet He in whom we trust has been better to us than our fears, and as we look backward over the year, we feel to say with thankful hearts, hitherto hath the Lord helped us. We will continue to trust in Him, and remember that "Faith without works is dead," and with renewed diligence, we will undertake the work of another year.

With increasing numbers and consequently additional expense, a little more energy will be demanded, as we find with the flight of years that the novelty of this branch of Christian work has worn off, and consequently the giving is not as spontaneous as heretofore. A little more of the oil of self-denial on our part, and the machinery will move on without friction. Five of our "family," who were with us a year ago, and whose last days it has been our privilege to cheer and comfort, have no further need of our ministrations, for they have exchanged their home here, for the Father's house of many mansions.

Mrs. Hannah Boyle, January 6th.

Mrs. Fannie Garrett, March 15th.

Miss Ann Martin, March 18th.

Mr. William Smith, July 7th.

Mr. Joseph Cornell, November 10th.

The transition from earth to heaven of our beloved and valued co-worker, Mrs. A. M. Conselyea, was keenly felt by our Board as a loss that was irreparable. So faithful and earnest in her Christian life and work, that sudden death was indeed sudden glory for her; one moment busy with her work for this "Home," the next—the Father's beckoning hand—the sweet call "come home" and endless joy and rapture inside heaven's gate to go out no more forever; no funeral dirge for this our sister, but rather the victor's song of triumph, "Unto Him who hath loved us, and washed us in His own blood, be glory and dominion forever and ever."

Continuing our work of retrospection, record must be made of our Annual Lawn Party, June 1st. and 2nd., which was in every way successful, and it affords us great pleasure to again acknowledge the great kindness of Mr. Stephen M. Randall and the Citizens' Electric Illuminating Co., who aided us so nobly in the work of enclosing and illuminating the grounds—erecting the music stands—contributing lumber and the labor of workmen, and in every way showing their sympathy with the work. Our much esteemed matron, Mrs. E. L. Bicknell, rendered material aid to the various committees.

The Fair of November 10th, 11th and 12th was held as usual in the Brooklyn Academy of Music, and though the first day proved stormy, yet the results were quite satisfactory to our beloved Treasurer, who had made an earnest appeal to us to double our diligence in view of our depleted treasury. For some time it has been a question whether we could afford to omit our annual Fair. Some have considered it too great a tax upon the time and strength of the ladies, for much brain and nerve force are consumed in planning and running a Fair on such a large scale; but after all has been said and the subject quite exhausted, we can but realize that it is impossible to raise an equivalent sum as easily by any other method, hence each year we decide again for a fair.

Among the large number to whom we owe a debt of gratitude that can never be cancelled is our learned counsel, Mr. H. C. M. Ingraham, our honored Dr. N. L. North (who certainly merits the title of the "The Beloved Physician") and his talented co-laborers Drs. Houghton and Pilcher. The demand upon the valuable time of our physicians has been greater these last two years, and necessarily the work of the Sick Committee has increased in proportion, and the faithful service which they have rendered cannot be too highly estimated.

Commensurate with the growth of the "family" the sphere of usefulness of the Table Committee is enlarged, but an unlimited store of good common sense, (that rare commodity,) enables the ladies of this committee to provide good, wholesome food, without being in the least open to the charge of extravagance.

The Church Committee do a noble work, their province being to attend to the religious service on Sabbath afternoons, and the prayer-meetings on Tuesdays of each week. In this they have the co-operation of the Brooklyn Methodist Divines.

The work of the Reading Committee is not to be less highly valued, though it is of a literary and musical character, for in this sorrow-burdened, care-laden world, we need relaxation and amusement, and music is of divine origin, and has ever lifted the soul heavenward since the early dawn of creation when even the "morning stars sang together"; and especially do the aged need all of cheer that we can give, for often, through the heavy cares and trials which have come to them in their checkered lives, sorrow like the raven has perched himself above the door of the heart, while chanting ceaselessly his "Nevermore," and the dim old eyes are blinded with tears for the lost but unforgotten, as memory brings before them the happy days of yore.

The work of the Visiting and Wardrobe Committees is also augmented with the increased number of inmates, and this is true of all the various Committees, who are equally as faithful as those already spoken of but of whom time will not permit any further mention. Before closing we must give expression to our gratitude to the "Whatsoever Circle of King's Daughters of Hanson Place M. E. Church." This Home certainly is greatly indebted to this band of young people who have done such noble work through the past.

The Charity Ten of Summerfield Church, on New Year's Day of 1892, also visited the Home and brought a basket of candy and a gift for each inmate. And now lest we infringe upon the time devoted to more pleasant features of this occasion, and also weary you by reason of our much speaking, until you would fain say, let us hear the conclusion of the whole matter, we will close with this thought: The Lord Jesus has honored us by allowing us to do some work for Him, and imperfect though we may feel it to be, if we live each day at our very best,

"We will finish our work on the other side,
When we wake in His likeness, satisfied."

MRS. JOHN H. WILLSON,

Corresponding Secretary.

Brooklyn, January 17th, 1893.

DOCTOR'S REPORT.

To the Board of Managers of the Methodist Episcopal Church Home for the Aged and Infirm:

LADIES:—The year of our Lord 1892 has been a good one for the old people, that is, a fairly healthy one; and yet, it has seemed necessary for me to make one hundred and fifty visits to the Home. I have been consulted for the ailments of the inmates some four hundred and fifty times when I have given advice, medicines or written prescriptions.

The deaths of patients under my care have been three, viz: January 6, 1892, Miss Hannah Boyle, aged sixty-six, of consumption; July 6, 1892, Mr. Wm. Smith, aged eighty years and six months, of apoplexy and paralysis; November 10, 1892, Mr. Joseph V. Cornell, aged seventy-five, of heart disease and dropsy.

My thanks are due to your Board for prompt action upon all my suggestions relating to the care and comfort of the old people.

To the Sick Committee, for generous and timely procurement of medicaments, nurses and all things needful for the care and comfort of the sick.

To the Matron, for patient, impartial watchfulness over the feeble ones of the family.

To the inmates themselves, for the kind and willing attentions of the stronger for the weaker, and of the comparatively well for the sick and suffering of their number. Some notable instances of patient endurance and Christian kindness and care might be mentioned were it necessary.

Very respectfully,

N. L. NORTH.

BROOKLYN, N. Y., FEBRUARY 4th, 1893.

To the Board of Managers of the Brooklyn M. E. Church Home for the Aged and Infirm:

LADIES:—The year just passed has been an uneventful one so far as my efforts to assist in the general comfort of the Home are concerned.

The condition of the Home has been good, and I feel like thanking the inmates and Matron for the kindness and consideration I have received.

Very respectfully,

B. L. HOUGHTON, M.D.

All property, real and personal, belonging to those who shall be received as permanent inmates, must be secured to the Home at the time they are admitted. Such property will not be returned should such inmates voluntarily choose to leave the Home.

The Board of Managers may donate to each inmate, annually, a sum of money not exceeding three dollars, if they deem proper, for the personal use of the inmate, for benevolent contributions or other expenses.

SEC. 5. Property acquired after admission shall in like manner be secured to the Home if the inmates shall elect to remain.

SEC. 6. All inmates who are capable will be required to render any proper service in their power for the benefit of the Home, and the assistance of each other. It is expected that every inmate will attend daily family worship, and go to the dining room for meals, unless in either case prevented by sickness, certified to by the visiting physician or the Matron. Inmates who desire to visit their friends may do so unless inclemency of the weather or bodily infirmity renders it injudicious for the Matron to grant permission; on leaving they must state to the Matron the probable length of absence, and the name and address of the person to be visited. If they have occasion to prolong their visit, notice of such intention must be sent to the Matron.

SEC. 7. No person will be allowed to solicit assistance or to procure work without the permission of the Board of Managers. No inmate shall be allowed to enter any place where beer or spirituous liquors are sold or distributed, or to partake of such drinks outside of the Home.

SEC. 8. No inmate shall be permitted to interfere or find fault with the Matron or domestics. If the inmate has cause for complaint, it must be made known to the President or Visiting Committee, who, if necessary, shall bring the matter before the Board of Managers.

SEC. 9. To preserve order and harmony in the household, implicit obedience must be yielded to the Matron and to all the rules and regulations of the Home. Persistent disobedience, after suitable admonition and warning, will be followed by expulsion from the Home.

SEC. 10. All articles of clothing must be plainly marked with the owner's name.

SEC. 11. If any inmates marry, they forfeit their place in the Home.
